Feature Documentary Premieres in Portland
“Paying the Price for Peace: The Story of S. Brian Willson”

For Immediate Release:

Paying the Price For Peace is an inspiring story of of an ordinary man and soldier who driven by his conscience and sense of honor, who took a stand that created unexpected consequences. His action not only transformed his life but impacted his fellow countrymen and an entire nation.

In this riveting feature length film, S. Brian Willson, a Portland resident, along with a real-life cast of well known peace activists, draws connections between Vietnam, Nicaragua, Iraq, and shows how we can overcome the fears that fuel perpetual war.

Producer/director Bo Boudart, an award winning documentary filmmaker deftly captures Willson’s story, along with Daniel Ellsberg, Medea Benjamin, Colonel Ann Wright, Alice Walker, Martin Sheen, Ron Kovic, Charlie Liteky, Duncan Murphy, Cindy Sheehan, Camilo Mejia, David Hartsough and others.

Narrated by Peter Coyote and an original music score by Malcolm Payne.

This film will be screened Sunday, July 3 at 7pm at the Clinton Theater, to be followed by Q&A with both S. Brian Willson and Director, Bo Boudart.
